

Code of Conduct
by MAKKABI Deutschland e. V. on the occasion of the participation in the 2nd MAKKABI Germany SkiWeek 2020 in Rodeneck/South Tyrol
from 3th of January (arrival) – 10th of January 2020 (return)

The following rules of conduct for the 2nd MAKKABI Deutschland SkiWeek 2020 in Rodeneck/South Tyrol (hereinafter referred to as SkiWeek) have been established to provide all participants with a positive, safe, sporting, educational, cultural and social experience. All participants are expected to follow the rules. Violations of these rules will result in disciplinary action to be taken by those responsible during the SkiWeek.

1. general rules of conduct:

Participants must behave in a disciplined manner at all times. Fighting, stealing, cheating or desperate verbal abuse as well as antisocial or disruptive behaviour are prohibited. Participants will be held financially responsible if they have damaged property.

2. drugs:

Possession, purchase and sale of drugs are strictly forbidden during the SkiWeek and can lead to much more serious personal and legal consequences. In addition, possession and/or consumption of drugs will be punished with disciplinary measures by those responsible at SkiWeek.

3. participants at the SkiWeek should treat their sports colleagues with respect, especially those of the opposite sex. It is forbidden to approach other participants indecently or against their will and to behave physically or verbally in such a way that this behaviour could be seen as an unwanted sexual attack.

4. Participants are required to participate in obligatory events and events according to the program and to arrive punctually at the venue. They should stay there until the end of the event and not leave it prematurely unless a special permission not to participate in the scheduled event or to leave it prematurely has been granted by a SkiWeek representative.

5. In order to ensure the well-being of the participants during the SkiWeek, the responsible persons may restrict the freedom of movement of the participants and the participants must strictly adhere to these restrictions.

6. participants must respect rest periods from the hotel.
