- Internet at sea mostly good. In Spain you can buy volume SIMs (cheap)
- You can hire a router separately (usually not necessary)

- Bookable on site: SUP, barbecue

Suitcases, bags, luggage storage in the harbour?

- Do not take suitcases on board, it is too cramped
- Bag or sports bag that can be rolled up or significantly reduced in size, rucksack • If you are bringing suitcases for a longer stay in Sardinia, you may be able to leave them with the charter company for a small fee. Take the necessary items with you on the boat. As this rule changes frequently, we will inquire about this separately

What about safety on board?

- A sailing trip is essentially safe
- The skipper's instructions must be strictly observed by all crew members. • On the day of arrival, a briefing is given by the skipper and includes all relevant safety measures.
- Life jackets, seat belts, etc.

How much money do I need on site?

- The price includes boat hire, marina moorings and insurance.
- Other costs such as fuel, catering and travel are not included in the price. • All additional costs of any kind incurred during the trip are also not included in the price and are covered by the on-board cash box.
 - The on-board fund is a contribution by each crew member of a certain amount of money for the joint purchase of food, diesel, excursions or other purchases.
- Each crew decides the amount of the on-board fund for itself; it is usually €75 to €200 per person per week (usually €120/person), although a further contribution may be necessary
- The amount of the contribution essentially depends on whether cooking is done on board and how much alcohol is consumed. If the crew only goes out to eat, the on board cash box is correspondingly small, but personal expenses are considerably higher.
- Prices in the restaurants are similar to those in Germany, food may be slightly cheaper.
